CHRISTIE'S

Evelyn Lin, Deputy Chairman and Co-Head of the 20th and 21st Century Art Department, Christie's Asia Pacific, remarked, "Responding to the sustained strength and dynamism of the art market in Asia, coupled with the increasingly diverse tastes of the region's collectors, Christie's are thrilled to be presenting a vibrant spectrum of masterpieces of the highest quality this season. Our five 20th and 21st century art auctions are a celebration of both world-renowned and up-and-rising artists, comprising a superb breadth of artworks created from the early 1900s to the present and, of course, we are incredibly excited to count Shen the T. rex amongst our offering – a cultural icon of the 20th and 21st Century, and the first specimen of its kind to be auctioned in Asia. The unique position of our saleroom in Hong Kong, which bridges the East and the West, enables us to present outstanding art and objects from both sides of the world, and this diversity is what makes our sales in Asia so exceptionally exciting."

Cristian Albu, International Director and Co-Head of the 20th and 21st Century Art Department, Christie's Asia Pacific, added, "From Sanyu to Adrian Ghenie, Joan Mitchell to Zao Wou-ki, our 20th and 21st Century art auctions this season transcend time periods, styles and geography, reaching beyond the canon of art history. The dissolution of these boundaries creates the space for rousing conversations between pieces that would never ordinarily appear together, enabling us to appreciate them in an entirely new and revelatory light. This is set to be a truly unique and fascinating viewing experience, and an absolutely sensational sale series in Asia."
