Comment: Philippe Garner, International Head of Photographs & Yuka Yamaji, London Head of

Photographs: "We are thrilled with the new world auction record for Helmut Newton which rightly situates him among the top photographers of his generation. We are also pleased to see participation in the sale from many countries with encouraging support from private European as well as American collectors. Bidding showed a lively interest in important historic works and also in more recent imagery of fashion and celebrity. We look forward to our next Photographs sales at South Kensington in February and King Street in May."
