

South Kensington: The Interior sales this week realised a total of £951,526.

The individual sales are broken down as follows:

SUNDAY 28 October, 11.30am

Property from the Collection of The Late The Hon. Mrs. Angela Lascelles (sale no: 5280) realised £222,888 and was 95% sold by value, 84% by lot. The top selling lot was Lot 146, The Prince and Princess of Wales's Screen: A late Victorian parcel-gilt and oak three piece Découpage screen, which realised £17,300. Please see attached Top Three for further details.

TUESDAY 30 October, 10.30am

Carpets, Furniture and Decorative Objects (sale no: 5153) realised £376,863 and was 86% sold by value, 80% by lot. The top selling lot was Lot 525 A George III Satinwood and inlaid Secrétaire Bookcase, late 18th-century, which realised £8,750.

TUESDAY 30 October, 10.30am

British and Continental Glass and Ceramics (sale no: 5153) realised £74,250 and was 67% sold by value, 64% sold by lot. The top selling lot was Lot 974, Two Sevres Seaux A Demi-Boutielle, 1773 and 1789 which realised £6,875.

WEDNESDAY 31 October, 2pm

British, Continental and Russian Pictures and Prints (sale no: 5126) realised £277,525, and was 87% sold by value, 79% by lot. The top selling lot was Lot 1324 Kenneth Rowntree (British 1915-1997) Girl Undressing by Candlelight which realised £6,000.