Sharon Kim, Senior Specialist and Head of Sale, says: "The classical, renowned names that truly shaped and defined 'modern art' such as Picasso, Miró, Matisse and Dalí were the most coveted artists of today's well-priced sale. Provenance adds a premium, with art from private collections such as the Estate of Pierre-Noel Matisse and the Estate of Baroness Marcella Korff. Christie's remains the only international house in New York to hold sales dedicated to Impressionist and Modern Works on Paper."

The combined total for Christie's November sales of Impressionist and Modern Art Day Sale and Works on Paper is $24,700,725.
