Comment: “SFr. 7,575,510 is the highest sale total ever achieved for any wine sale in Geneva and in Europe since 1997. The Private Swiss Cellar of 12.000 unique bottles, the largest single owner collection ever to be offered at auction was sold 98% by lot and realized SFr.6,854,943. Its exceptional provenance and quality attracted international and Swiss collectors as well as sommeliers from around the world, bidding intensively throughout the two-day auction. 56% of the buyers came from Switzerland, followed by 12% from the Far East and 4.5% from the Americas. Record prices were paid for premium wines, Bordeaux, Burgundy and alone SFr. 3,573,556 were paid for the 1.500 bottles of Pétrus from the Private Swiss Cellar.” said Oliver Wiseman, Specialist in charge of the sale.
