Comments: Virgilio Garza, Head of the Latin American Art department: "Tonight's sale of Latin American Art, represented artists from fifteen countries and performed solidly throughout. With the excellent results achieved for Fernando Botero Christie's again firmly cemented Botero's international reputation and appeal. The appearance of this exceptional group of Botero paintings and sculpture was widely recognized by the audience as a rare occasion to acquire work by one of the greatest living Latin American artists. Another highlight of the night was Matta's haunting mural Watchman, What of the night? consigned by the Metropolitan Museum of Art to Benefit the Acquisitions Fund which fetched $990,400. Ten world auction records were set including for Jesus Rafael Soto, Candido Portinari and Mira Schendel. We look forward to our day sale which will take place tomorrow."
