COMMENT: Catherine Leonhard, Head of American Paintings, Christie's Los Angeles:
"This auction produced our highest grossing auction to date, reaching $5.85 million and far exceeding the record set in April 2005 of $4.4 million. We were particularly delighted with the strong enthusiasm for a selection of works by Charles Marion Russell, offered for sale by a charitable institution. These works, all fresh to the market, were keenly sought after by both private and trade buyers. Along with the Russells, Western works were prevalent throughout the auction, including property from the Denver Art Museum. Many new and existing clients from all over the Western United States took part in the sale and helped produce some remarkable prices for this category."
