Comment: Simon Andrews, Director, 20th Century Decorative Arts said: “At 88% sold by both lot and value, Modernism from a California Collection presented a unique, stylish and carefully assembled selection of 20th century furniture and design which drew clients from across Europe, the Middle East and the US to our recently refurbished South Kensington salerooms. Spirited room and telephone bidding ensured that record prices were set for works by the leading designers. As a unique collaboration between Christie's Los Angeles and London, the auction served to underline the international identity of our sales”.
