Tim Bourne, International Co-Head of Christie's Watch Department: "Today's sale was the most valuable watch sale ever held in Asia - a fitting end to an extraordinary week here at Christie's Hong Kong. The top ten alone shows how truly global participation in this sale was. In addition, the sale also witnessed incredible participation from Christie's LIVE, with 17 lots sold to online buyers - including the highest valued lot purchased online to date, a unique Patek Philippe clock watch that fetched HK$ 3,847,500 (US$ 494,019). Today's sale brings the annual total for Christie's International Watch Department to US$88 million, underscoring our position as the undeniable market leader."
