Anthony Phillips, Director and International Head of Christie's Silver Department and Harry Williams-Bulkeley, Director and Head of Christie's Silver Department, London: Today's sale saw strong and spirited bidding throughout. We were absolutely delighted with the price realised for the superb Renaissance cup which attracted enormous interest worldwide. It was without doubt one of the finest objects of its type ever to appear at auction and was presented in superb, original condition. We now look forward to the sale of Property formerly in the Collection of King George I of the Hellenes which will be offered on 24 and 25 January 2007 and will include an exceptional selection of 600 silver lots and 250 further lots of Faberge, furniture and pictures.
