Market Comment: Peter Brown, Director and head of sale: “Today’s sale saw competitive bidding from a selection of predominantly international private clients, many of whom were new to Christie’s. We are pleased to have established new artist records at auction for E.W. Cooke, J.C. Horsley and Philip de László, who’s Portrait of Mrs Virginia Heckscher McFadden realised £38,400. This auction with the corresponding sale in June have realised a combined total of over £9.1 million. We now look forward to Christopher Wood: A Very Victorian Eye, a single-owner sale of drawings, paintings and decorative arts on 28 February, and our next sale of Victorian and Traditional Pictures in June 2007.”
