Comment: Harry Williams-Bulkeley, Head of Silver Department, Christie's London:

"The very strong results for the various owners silver sale with 82% of the lots sold demonstrated the continuing demand for silver from across all price ranges and countries. The wonderful collection of Austrian silver-gilt mounted rock crystal was 100% sold with spirited bidders competing for each lot. We were thrilled with the world record price for the Whitfield Cup and accompanying painting from the Collection of Lord Harris of Peckham which was bought by a US Institution."
