Kerry Keane and Cathy Elkies, Christie's Head Specialists for the sale said: "Christie's went country today with its inaugural sale of Country Music memorabilia, musical instruments, and costumes from some of America's marquee names. The sale was 91% sold by lot, underscoring the continuing importance and collectibility of these uniquely American artifacts. In addition, iconic pieces from the celebrated Roy Rogers sold well above pre-sale estimates and in some cases, garnered a round of applause in the saleroom."
