COMMENT: Tim Bourne and Aurel Bacs, International Co-Heads of the Watch Department:
“An animated room coupled with numerous international phone bidders ensured the tremendous success of our last auction in New York in 2004. Exceptional prices were paid for rare and collectible timepieces, further strengthening Christie's most successful year for watch auctions ever. The top lot, a rare and important Patek Philippe wristwatch ref.3448, achieved a staggering $405,100 and created a new world record for this model in yellow gold. We look forward to our last 2004 sale in Europe on December 15 at South Kensington.”
