"A fine end to a terrific season at King Street. We were particularly pleased with the results for the private cellar of Ken Hom which made in excess of £100,000. The market's thirst for super-rare lots continues unabated with a single case of magnums of La Romanee-Conti 1969 being knocked down for £66,000 and an eleven magnum super-lot from the legendary 1961 vintage making £88,000. Other highlights included a rare full case of 1990 Le Pin £27,000 and an exceptionally rare case of Quinta do Noval Nacional 1963 selling for £17,600," said Chris Munro, Head of Sale
