COMMENT: Jeff Lovell, Silver Specialist, Christie's South Kensington:

"We are very pleased with the results achieved today for this unique sale, the first ever devoted exclusively to stamp boxes to be held at Christie's. The full saleroom featured many new faces to Christie's South Kensington and reflected the strong international interest in a wonderful single-owner collection amassed over 20 years. The four Fabergé pieces were the highlights of the sale with two of the boxes selling for double our pre-sale expectations."
