COMMENT: "Our sale today rounded off a fabulous year in New York that totaled $89.6 million, representing an increase of 60% over 2004. Bidding was constant all across the board with great activity from both private collectors and trade clients. The jewelry market has remained extremely buoyant throughout the year realizing tremendous prices in every Christie's sale worldwide and we look forward to continued success in 2006," said Rahul Kadakia, Head of Jewelry for Christie's Americas.
