“Today’s $15.4m auction concludes a $110m year of jewelry sales in New York, the highest annual total ever achieved in the U.S. jewelry auction market. The property from the Collection of Hélène Arpels was 100% sold for $1.6m and extraordinary prices were paid for signature VC&A examples such as the ‘Ludo Hexagone’ platinum and diamond bracelet which sold for $251,200,” said Rahul Kadakia, Head of Jewelry for Christie’s Americas
