Comment: Lindsay Morgan, Head of Sale said: "We were delighted with the results of yesterday's sale, which saw a packed saleroom and strong bidding from the phones and the internet. The sale saw several works soar above their estimate, particularly Lot 59 Steve Parrino's untitled work which realized £78,500 against a top estimate £12,000. Works by Yayoi Kusama were noticeably sought after, particularly Lot 157, Flower, which realized an impressive £48,500 against a top estimate of £5,000. We look forward to the next Post War and Contemporary Art sale at Christie's South Kensington in April next year"
