

Contact: Hannah Schmidt

+44 (0)207 389 2964

hschmidt@christies.com

CHRISTIE'S LONDON ASIAN ART WEEK SALES TOTAL £18,557,695 / $29,826,206 / €21,601,374

98% Increase from the November 2009 London Asian Art Week sales

- The week was led by a pair of fine and rare Imperial engraved turned ivory bowls, 18th century, which sold for £2,281,250.
- Jonathan Stone, Regional Managing Director, Asia; International Business Director, Asian Art, commented: "The Chinese and Asian art market rose to a new level this week in London, reinforcing the dynamism of this hugely important market. Christie's welcomed a large number of new buyers, especially from mainland China."

OVERVIEW OF ASIAN ART WEEK SALES

Top Lot	Description	Estimate (£)	Purchase Price	Buyer
Fine Chinese Ceramics and Works of Art: 9 November - Christie's King Street
Total Sold: £13,341,050 / $21,465,749 Sold by Lot: 56% Sold by Value: 84%
62	 A pair of fine and rare Imperial engraved turned ivory bowls, 18th century	600,000 - 800,000	£2,281,250	Anonymous
			$3,670,531
			€2,648,531
Interiors (Asian Works Of Art Section): 9 & 10 November - Christie's South Kensington
Total Sold: £621,770 / $1,000,428 Sold by Lot: 78% Sold by Value: 91%
436	 Two Chinese gilt-lacquered Buddhas, early 20th century	1,000-1,500	£26,250	Anonymous
			$42,236
			€30,476

Japanese Art & Design: 10 November - Christie's South Kensington

Total Sold: £1,111,125 / $1,775,578

Sold by Lot: 55%

Sold by Value: 68%

398

A fine three-case inro , signed Zeshin,
Edo period (19th century)

15,000 -
20,000

£73,250
$117,054
€84,824

Private

Chinese Ceramics, Works of Art and Textiles: 12 November - Christie's South Kensington

Total Sold: £3,483,750 / $5,584,451

Sold by Lot: 80%

Sold by Value: 91%

1038

A copper red glazed vase, Kangxi underglaze blue six character mark and of the period (1662-1722)

5,000-8,000

£217,250
$348,252
€255,921

Asian Trade

###

High resolution images available upon request

www.christies.com