Comment: Flora Elek, Private Collections and Country House Sales Department, Christie's London:

"From a chic New York apartment, designed by the legendary interior designer Jed Johnson, came an inspiring and diverse spectrum of art. Ranging from a chrome-plated air missile, which sold for over five times its pre-sale estimate, to a Cubist inspired painting by the Russian artist Angiboult, which sold for over £,130,000, international buying produced spectacular results in all categories with the sale making well over pre-sale high estimate.

We very much look forward to Syd Levethan - The Longridge Collection which will take place on 10th and 11th June at King Street."
