Charles Curtis MW, Head of Wine for Christie's Asia said, "The 26-27 November sales of Finest and Rarest Wines was a great success at HK$80,382,600. Nearly 80% of the lots sold over the high estimate, and each session featured a lot that sold in excess of HK$1,000,000. The average lot value of $141,000 is the highest ever, and represents an increase of 18.9% over our Spring auction. The sale demonstrated the continued strength of the great first growth Bordeaux and indicated a new interest in large format bottles and in older vintages. Burgundy values were also strong, particularly for Henri Jay and Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and champagne prices remained bubbly, with the superlot from Krug (one of our million dollar lots) representing the highest value ever consigned directly from the winery.

In addition, I am very pleased to report that Christie's Hong Kong Wine sales totalled HK$169 million in 2010 - our highest annual total to date with over 96% of all lots sold by value. We look forward to our first sale of the 2011 auction season to be held at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel on 4-5 March."
