David Elswood, International Head of Wine for Christie's said: "Our Spring Hong Kong auction reached a record-breaking climax with the sale of the "Liquid Gold Collection" of Château d'Yquem which realised just over HK$8million, establishing a new record for any wine lot in Hong Kong, as well the most valuable wine lot ever sold globally by Christie's. Elsewhere in the sale – which at HK$40.3 million is our largest in Hong Kong to date – substantial prices were achieved in all categories through competitive bidding between clients from Hong Kong, Mainland China and many more throughout the wider Asia region and beyond."
