Alexandra Gill, Head of Department:

"We are very pleased with the sale of Old Master, Decorative Modern & Contemporary Prints, which brought a total for the year to £2.8 million making it the highest sale on record for Christie's Prints department in South Kensington. Traditional Modern British works saw strong demand, led by the result achieved for Edward Alexander Wadsworth's S.S. Jerseymoor, which realised an astounding £73,250/ $117,933/ €89,805, far exceeding its pre-sale estimate. The sale drew competitive bidding throughout, reflecting the broad appeal, quality and condition of the property offered. The auction saw notable online participation with 26% of works selling to or directly underbid by the internet through Christie's LIVE ™. We look forward to the next sale of Prints and Multiples on 19 April in South Kensington."
