Rahul Kadakia, Head of Jewelry for Christie's Americas & Switzerland: "Colored diamonds kicked off the first major jewelry sale of the season at Christie's New York. The collections of Diana Dollar Knowles and The Estate of the Honorable Noreen Stonor Drexel performed very well with some of the finest examples of vintage David Webb jewels. Eva Perón's Argentine Flag Brooch was offered for the second time at Christie's, after fifteen years, and was acquired by an Argentinean collector for $461,000. We look forward to our week of sales at Christie's Geneva where we will offer THE ORANGE – the Largest Fancy Vivid Orange Diamond in the World."
