Elia draws influences from fine art to modern architecture producing contemporary designs using traditional methods. Highlights consist of a diamond pendant necklace (pictured left; estimate $4,000 – 5,000), an 18K white gold and diamond ring inspired by Elia’s South American heritage (pictured page one, right) and an amethyst, diamond and gold necklace (pictured page one, center).

Keemee designer Olivia Wildenstein developed her eye for accessories after an internship with Oscar de la Renta thus leading to her creation of gem-set jewelry. Wildenstein creations are comprised of rounded and organic jewels worked in 18K gold, diamonds and cultured pearls.
