Comment: Keith Penton, Head of London Jewellery Department: "The London sale of 'Important Jewels' saw competitive bidding in a busy saleroom and a strong online presence with nearly 30% of the lots being sold to or underbid by clients via Christie's LIVE. The rich array of natural pearl jewels was led by an important three-row necklace which realised over £1 million, and a diamond and natural pearl brooch which fetched £433,875 against a pre-sale estimate of £25,000 - 35,000. These results illustrate the continued strength in the market for natural pearls. This London sale concludes an extremely successful spring season for jewels at Christie's."
