Darren Leak and Beatriz Ordovas, Co-Heads of the Post-War & Contemporary Art Day Auction, Christie's London: "In an unprecedentedly crowded saleroom, Christie's six-hour long day auction saw strong bidding over the phone, on the internet and in the room. The selection of high-quality, fresh-to-the-market works proved successful throughout the sale, including the 'Homage to Chillida' section. A number of younger artists attracted an exceptional quantity of collectors, as exemplified by Oscar Murillo's 'Untitled' which drew over a dozen telephone bidders and set a new auction record. We were equally delighted with the performance of a rare appearance at auction of a 'Fold' painting by Tauba Auerbach also establishing a record price for the artist at auction."
