Chris Munro, Head of London Wine Department: "A superb result for this wine sale in London, featuring Port from the Symington family reserves. We witnessed competitive bidding throughout the Port section which was 100% sold. The top lot was six bottles of the extremely rare Graham's 1945 which made an impressive £7,650 against a pre-sale estimate of £3,600-4,800. Other Ports featured throughout the sale and a rare full case of Taylor 1945 made a remarkable £20,000 smashing through its pre-sale estimate of £6,000 to £8,000. We were also delighted to raise £47,329 for WaterAid in partnership with Decanter magazine. We now look forward to our online only Signature Cellars sale which opens for bidding on 30 October 2014 and the sale of Fine Burgundy and other Fine Wines at King Street on 6 November 2014."
