Murray Macaulay, Director, Prints Department, and Head of Sale: "We are extremely pleased with the success of James Ensor Prints: The Mira Jacob Collection sale held on Wednesday, 19 March 2014. An almost complete survey of the artist's graphic work with many rarities including beautifully hand-coloured proofs, the sale established a new world record price at auction for a print by the artist with 'The Deadly Sins dominated by Death' which realised £134,500. Drawing Ensor enthusiasts from around the world who competed fiercely to acquire works from this important collection, the sale nearly doubled its pre-sale estimate. Its success is a testament to both the genius of James Ensor as an artist and printmaker, as well as to Mira Jacob as a collector. We look forward to our South Kensington Prints and Multiples sale on 16 April 2014."
