John Reardon, International Head of Christie's Watches, commented: "Today's sale displayed the scope of international participation in our auctions and the depth of interest in the world's finest horological treasures. From Seattle to Miami, Greenland to Singapore, and from the internet and to the auction room, the bidding activity proved to be exciting and engaging as buyers from around the world competed to buy fine and rare timepieces. As we wrap up this season filled with many records in our salesrooms in HK, NY, Geneva, and Dubai, we now look forward to presenting the world a sales series in the Fall that will excite and engage our constantly growing buying community."
