Charlotte Young, Specialist, Private Collections & Country House Sales: "We are extremely pleased with the results achieved by the Tessa Kennedy collection which kick-started this 'Interiors' sale. There was fierce competition for a large number of lots across the categories offered and as a result the collection more than doubled the low estimate. These results are testament to the appeal of Kennedy's comfortable yet opulent interiors and reflect the public's appetite for objects with a story to tell. We are particularly pleased with the success of the beautiful mother-of-pearl, ivory and bone inlaid olivewood architectural model of the Holy Sepulchre, Jerusalem, 19th century, which was highly sought-after and realised £23,750 against a pre-sale estimate of £3,000 – 5,000. We look forward to our next collection within an Interiors sale 'Decoration Empire: the collection of Anne Noordam & Thong Lei' on the 15 April 2014."
