Comment: Nicolette Tomkinson, Director and Head of Department commented:

"We are very pleased with the results of the 16th annual Ski sale at Christie's which remains the only dedicated auction of its type in the world. Building on the success of the 2013 auction which saw the introduction of vintage luggage to the sale category, there was competitive bidding for pieces by Louis Vuitton, with many lots exceeding their pre-sale estimates. The finest examples of vintage ski posters were highly sought-after, in particular for the section of Swiss posters, led by Emil Cardinaux's poster of Zermatt which sold for £21,250. There was fierce competition for posters depicting resorts in Italy, Switzerland and Austria, many of which are now en route to decorate chalets across the globe. This year we were very proud to partner with Skiing with Heroes for a special reception and charity auction held on 16 January 2014 which saw invaluable funds being raised to support the skihabilitation of wounded veterans."
