Chris Munro, Head of London Wine Department, commented: "Rare Burgundy took centre stage at this Fine & Rare Wine sale with wines from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti leading the auction. The top lot of the day was an extremely rare full case of Richebourg 1945, which sold for £30,550. The demand for wines from the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti continued in the London offering of The Sir Alex Ferguson CBE Collection, which was led by a single magnum of Romanée-Conti 2002 which fetched £16,450 (lot 8298). Following on from the Hong Kong sale, the London offering from this collection brings the total to date to £2,667,883. We now look forward to the third sale from this collection which is offered in an online-only auction that opens on Monday 9 and runs to 23 June 2014."
