New York - Christie's announces three Photographs sales to be offered for Fall 2015, starting from 22 September to 6 October. The sales include exciting works for new and seasoned collectors alike, featuring a first-ever curated Evening Sale on October 5, a Day Sale following on October 6, and First Exposure, an online-only sale, now open for bidding. In addition, Christie's will present Patrick Demarchelier: Photographs 1975-2015, a private selling exhibition of the legendary French fashion photographer from October 2- 12.

Photographs: The Evening Sale showcases 42 works and reflects a reinvigorated focus on the incredible breadth of offerings from the full history of the medium, encompassing the early beginnings, strong modernist and post-war periods, all the way through to rising contemporary stars. Artists include Eugene Atget, Alfred Stieglitz, Edward Weston, Paul Strand, Edward Steichen, Man Ray, Dorothea Lange, Irving Penn, Robert Frank, William Eggleston, Diane Arbus, Alec Soth and Todd Hido, among others. First Exposure, an online-only sale, is now open for bidding. The sale offers cutting-edge and accessible Contemporary Photography where collectors will find an outstanding array of analogue, digital, and mixed media photographic and photo-based work. This online sale will coincide with Print's First Impression and First Open/NYC sales, and a selection of highlights will be on view at Rockefeller Center. Registration is open to all clients, anywhere in the world, and all payment is by credit card within 48 hours of the sale close on October 1. Please click here for more information.
