Angus Granlund, Head of Sale, Modern British Art: "The Modern British and Irish Art sale included works formerly in the private collection of Sir Noël Coward which has helped bring to light both Coward's love of art as a collector and his skill as a painter. The collection realised a total of £1,274,103 and provided the top three prices for the sale."

Sixteen new world records were set in this sale, including Glyn Warren Philpot, Derek Hill, James Dickson Innes and the sculptor Gertrude Hermes. The saleroom at Christie's South Kensington was packed and there was competitive bidding both on the telephones and online via Christie's LIVE™.
