Simon Tam, Head of Wine Asia, commented: “Not surprisingly, this year’s comprehensive selection of Bordeaux and Burgundy, as well as the particularly rare Champagne vintages from Dom Pérignon, drew dynamic bidding from both avid collectors and new buyers. We are delighted with the strong participation of both international and local clients, with our Asian buyers at the forefront. As shown by the exceptional strong sell-through rates, Hong Kong has proven once again to be the central hub for the world’s most exceptional and sought-after wines.”
