

CHRISTIE'S

16 JANUARY 2019 | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RESULTS: AMERICANA WEEK, DAY 1

LITTLE CASSIOBURY: THE COLLECTION OF SUSAN LYALL

Sale Total: $1,885,000

View Results

Christie's first sale of Americana Week 2019 is off to a strong start with 96% of lots sold in Little Cassiobury: Collection of Susan Lyall. The top lot of the sale was an Irish William IV Mahogany Four-Pedestal Extension Dining Table by Williams and Gibton, circa 1835 which realized $156,250.

"We are thrilled with the results today which reflected the elegant and sought-after taste of Susan Lyall and her beautiful home at Little Cassiobury," comments Emily Shwajlyk, Head of Sale.

Other top lots include a pair of Huanghuali 'Official's Hat' Armchairs, Guanmaoyi, 17th-18th Century which sold for $118,750, Sir Alfred James Munnings' 'Gorse on Ringland Hills' which achieved $87,500, and a pair of George II Giltwood Dragons by William Linnell, circa 1755, soared above the $2,000-3,000 estimate to realize $32,500.

Americana Week Continues:

January 17

CHINESE EXPORT ART FEATURING THE HODROFF COLLECTION, PART IV

January 17-18

IMPORTANT AMERICAN FURNITURE, FOLK ART, SILVER AND PRINTS

January 18

OUTSIDER AND VERNACULAR ART

Online January 14-23

CHINA FROM CHINA