New York – Christie's announces this year's Staff Art Show, Inside Job, which will open to bidding from July 25 – August 5. The online auction will be accompanied by an exhibition at Christie's New York galleries from July 25 – August 5 with an opening reception on August 1st.

Inside Job presents nearly 100 works of art created by Christie's New York employees from departments across the company including Art Handlers, Marketing, Estates and Appraisals and Specialist Departments such as Watches, World Art, and Post-War and Contemporary Art. The sale features unique paintings, works on paper, photography, and sculpture highlighting the diversity and creativity of the artists. With estimates starting at $100, the sale offers a rare opportunity for new and seasoned collectors to purchase works of outstanding quality by art-world insiders, many of whom are experts in their field.

This year, continuing Christie's Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives, a portion of the proceeds from the auction will be given to Sing for Hope, a charity which brings the healing and unifying powers of art and creativity to people all over the world in hospitals, schools, refugee camps and public spaces.

Additionally, the opening reception on August 1st will feature five Sing for Hope Pianos: "Urban Harmony," by King Yan "Fina" Yeung; "Color in the City," by Billy The Artist; "Treasure," by Noël Copeland; "Hummingbirds," by Robert Padovano; and "Basant Utsav (Celebration of Spring)," by Alpana Mittal "Tejaswini."
