CHRISTIE'S CONFIRMS PRECAUTIONARY CLOSURES AND SALE POSTPONEMENTS IN EUROPE AND AMERICAS

UPDATE AS OF 13 MARCH 2020

Christie's continues to monitor all global developments related to the COVID-19 virus outbreak, including adherence to the recommendations from the World Health Organisation (WHO). The health and well-being of our employees and our clients remains our highest priority. We continue to assess the situation daily and make appropriate arrangements to help ensure the health and safety of employees and visitors to our salerooms and galleries worldwide.

Sales Calendar

Christie's is currently working through a restructuring of its forthcoming auctions, including significant changes to the sales calendar in the Americas and Europe for April and May, which will be announced shortly. Our international teams are in place to advise any client who has questions about sales items and to help arrange for remote viewing and/or bidding. See our online guide for bidding and buying online.

Offices Update

As a precautionary measure and in keeping with guidance from international and local public health authorities, Christie's is implementing reduced hours and sales office closures for the following global locations, effective Monday, 16 March:

The following offices are closed: Bogota, Brussels, Buenos Aires, Chicago, Dallas, Dubai, Düsseldorf, Hamburg, Houston, Los Angeles, Milan, Munich, Monaco, Moscow, New York, Madrid, Mexico City, Miami, Rome, San Francisco, Santiago, Sao Paulo, Stuttgart, Tel Aviv, Toronto, Vienna, Zurich

The following offices are open and working with a reduced number of staff: Amsterdam, Geneva, and Paris.

Christie's King Street in London remains open, and we are reviewing the situation on a daily basis.

Please be assured that all of our locations worldwide are undertaking stringent protocols for safety and hygiene, in keeping with international and local public health guidelines.

A further announcement about spring season sales will follow in the coming days, including dates for all rescheduled sales.
