

CHRISTIE'S

MEDIA ALERT | LONDON
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE | 16 MARCH 2020

UPDATE REGARDING CHRISTIE'S KING STREET

The following scheduled sales at Christie's London will continue as planned:

- Prints & Multiples, 18 March
- Chieveley House, Berkshire and Five Private Collections, 19 March

For clients that may prefer to participate remotely in our London sales, Christie's offers online and mobile browsing and remote bidding by phone, online, or proxy bid. Our international teams are in place to advise any client who has questions about sale items and to help arrange for remote viewing and/or bidding. See our online guide for bidding and buying online.

Further to the announcement made last week regarding remote working and a restructuring of forthcoming auctions internationally, we have a further update regarding Christie's King Street.

Christie's London employees will shift to remote working from Tuesday 17 March for an initial two week period, with the exception of a small team in place at King Street to support the continuing sales in London this week. By close of business Friday 20 March, all Christie's employees worldwide will have shifted to remote working.

Christie's continues to monitor all global developments related to the COVID-19 virus outbreak, including adherence to the recommendations from the World Health Organisation (WHO). The health and well-being of our employees and our clients remains our highest priority. We continue to assess the situation daily and make appropriate arrangements to help ensure the health and safety of employees and visitors to our salerooms and galleries worldwide.

A further announcement about rescheduled Spring Season sales will follow.