CHRISTIE'S HONG KONG ANNOUNCES AUCTION UPDATES

Update as of 7 Apr 2020

Following the announcement on 13 March in response to the COVID-19 virus outbreak, Christie's has completed a review of the Hong Kong Spring Auctions calendar and has decided to postpone the auction week from 30 May – 3 June to the week of 5 July.

Francis Belin, President, Christie's Asia Pacific, commented, "We have decided to postpone our keynote Hong Kong May sales to July and believe this new window creates a better sale environment. Our goal is to best serve our consignors and our clients through building successful sales for auction, private and online channels. We look forward to reconvening in July and thank our clients for their continued patience and support as the health and well-being of our communities remains our highest priority".

For the latest global sale calendar updates and news, please refer to the table below and on Christie's website.

Additional details about the July sales will follow in the coming days.
