CHRISTIE'S APPOINTS NEW MEMBERS TO THE AMERICAS ADVISORY BOARD

New York — Christie's is pleased to announce the appointment of two new members to the Americas Advisory Board, Michael Feng and Bernard I. Lumpkin. As a group, the board members provide its executive team with valuable outside-in perspective on the market, future opportunities, and broader business trends.

Michael Feng is an active investor in many private equity ventures in the biotech and healthcare field. He spent four decades as a senior executive in the private wealth industry. He and his wife, Winnie, have built one of the most important collections of early Chinese Art comprising early Chinese Painting, Neolithic Jades, Archaic Bronzes and vintage American Photography. Their collections have been exhibited at LACMA, The Art Institute of Chicago and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Michael is a former Trustee of The Penn Art Museum, The Freer and Sackler Galleries and continues to serve as a Collections Committee Member at The Harvard Museums. Michael's family is actively involved with the Hoover Institution Library and Archives at Stanford.

Bernard I. Lumpkin is a contemporary art collector, patron, and educator whose commitment to both emerging and established artists of African descent is part of a broader mission of institutional advocacy and support. Mr. Lumpkin currently sits on the Board of Trustees of the Studio Museum in Harlem and the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture. At the Whitney Museum of American Art, Mr. Lumpkin serves on the Education Committee and on the Painting & Sculpture Committee. At the Museum of Modern Art, he serves on the Media & Performance Committee and is also the Vice-Chair of the Friends of Education patron group. Mr. Lumpkin has advised public and private organizations on collecting and patronage, and participated in discussion panels at art fairs, auction houses, and universities.
